The World's Best Value, March 2001:

Travel and Leisure Magazine – Top Hotels for value in Africa and the Middle East:

Winner : Governors' Camp,

Governors' Camp has been voted "the best value hotel in Africa and the Middle East for the year 2000" by the readers of Travel and Leisure magazine of the United States. This is the first time a safari camp in Kenya has received this prestigious award.

Travel and Leisure magazine is one of the leading travel magazines in the USA and we are very proud that Governors' has been recognized by the readers of this magazine as the best value hotel in Africa and the Middle East.

We believe this reflects Governors' Camp's commitment to its principles of world-class levels of comfort, service and value in unpretentious and sympathetic surroundings in one of the world's prime wildlife areas.
