

Baggage Policy

Due to the limited luggage capacity of our Cessna 208 aircraft, we ask clients to adhere to our baggage guidelines. Please familiarise yourself with our size and weight limits, special items, and excess luggage fees to ensure a smooth travel experience. With this information, you can fly confidently and plan for a hassle-free journey. Safe travels!

Baggage compliance

Make sure your luggage adheres to the specified weight and size restrictions outlined by Governors' Aviation. This step can help you avoid unpacking at the check-in counter or incurring additional fees.

Security inspections

Be prepared for your luggage to undergo inspections by the Kenya Airport Authority (KAA) security or Governors' Aviation personnel. These security measures are in place to ensure the safety of all passengers.

Baggage allowance

Passengers are permitted to bring soft baggage with maximum dimensions of 35cm (W) x 35cm (H) x 67cm (L) and hard-shell suitcases 38cm (W) x 55cm (H) x 30cm (L) a total weight limit of 15 kg. This allowance includes personal carry on items.

Allowable small hardshell suitcase dimensions

If you need to bring a small hardshell suitcase as part of your checked in luggage, it must not exceed the specified dimensions in this illustration.

Adaptive equipment

Governors' Aviation promotes inclusivity for passengers with unique abilities by permitting the transport of various adaptive equipment such as wheelchairs, walking stick, walkers, crutches, etc.

Excess or additional luggage

The standard luggage allowance for all flights is 15 kgs.

- Acceptance of excess baggage is at the discretion of the pilot and Governors' Aviation personnel, factoring in the total number of passengers and overall luggage weight.
- Charges for excess baggage are set at USD $3 per kg for each destination.
- We provide storage of excess baggage at our Wilson Airport office, for clients travelling with Governors' Aviation.

Thank you for choosing Governors' Aviation for your travel needs. We are truly grateful for your trust and look forward to providing exceptional service and a pleasant journey!
