Masaai Blessing Package

An official registered licensed wedding is not permissible at Governors' Camp; however, we can arrange a Maasai Blessing ceremony, as planned in advance, with the couple.

US$ 3, 400 per group, max 6 guests.

Included:-

- A stunning ceremony location, either within camp or on the scenic banks of the Mara River
- Maasai elders and senior women from the local community to bless the occasion
- Traditional Maasai dancers, including young Morans and Maasai women, performing during your vows
- Authentic Maasai ornaments for the couple
- Maasai shukas (traditional blankets) for ceremonial use
- Floral arrangements for the ceremony venue and your safari vehicle - styled in natural, earthy tones to complement the surrounding landscape
- A three-tier vanilla celebration cake and a bottle of sparkling wine
- A private group dinner beautifully set at Governors' Camp on the evening of your ceremony
- Exclusive use of a safari vehicle on the day of the blessing
- A traditional Maasai name bestowed upon the couple following the ceremony

Excluded:-
Accommodation, flights, transfer, park fees, community levy etc.

Photography
We are happy to recommend a Kenya-based photographer who specialises in occasion and wildlife photography. You may contact them directly to discuss suitable packages and rates. Please note that all associated costs, including the photographer's fees, accommodation, park and community fees, and transport to and from the Maasai Mara, are at your own expense.
